"I like the plan of allowing the pigs to make hogs of themselves instead of waiting on them like they were in a hotel," remarked Tom Sparrow, of Gaston County N. C. "I have been feeding my hogs perfectly good high priced corn, with just a little accidental parture occasionally, until this year when County Agent J. B. Steele got me to try a field of soy beans and corn, and put a temporary fence around it so that the hogs could help themselves. I like this plan so well that I am going to double my herd of Berkshires, and use soy beans for the fall and winter feed, and other grazing crops the rest of the year. In this way I get both a crop of corn and a crop of hogs. The soy bean vines and keeping the hogs also greatly improve the land. This is about the only way that I know that a man can 'eat his cake and keep it too.' "This year the demonstrator helped me build a silo, put in stanchions for my Jerseys, and put water-works in my kitchen. Of course, I don't give him credit for everything I do, but at the same time he is well worth having around, and I am always glad to see him come."—The Progressive Farmer.

"Aunt Polly" Williams Passes Away.

The remains of "Aunt Polly" Williams, who died at her home in Carthage last Sunday morning, February 9th, at ten o'clock following an illness of two weeks arrived in Gainesboro Monday evening, and were laid to rest in the Lock Cemetery two miles north of town, Tuesday morning. Services were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Hampton, conducted by Rev. O. P. Gentry.

Mrs. Williams would have attained her eightieth birthday, had she lived until May 5th. She was born and raised in Gainesboro, and for forty years, was proprietress of a hotel here, and no woman ever lived in the state who was better or more favorably known to the traveling public than "Aunt Polly," for she was universally spoken of by her innumerable acquaintances. She was a member of the church and loved to attend services when health would permit.

Beside a husband she is survived by 3 daughters, one son, and one brother.

Miss Leona Haile, of Flynn's Fick, who has been teaching in the High school here for two terms, has resigned, on account of her mother being in ill health. Miss Haile is an excellent teacher and her work here has been of the highest order.

Mrs. E. W. Tardy returned Thursday from Nashville, where she has spent 3 weeks with her father, W. M. Gailbreath, at the Woman's Hospital. Mr. Gailbreath is rapidly recovering from an operation he underwent three weeks ago. He was able to leave the hospital Thursday, and will spend several days with Nashville relatives before returning home.

John Watts and Charley Cooper, of Granville, were in town Thursday. Mr. Watts is in on a leave of absence from the U. S. navy, called home on account of the death of his sister, Miss Clara Watts, who died in Nashville, last Friday morning. Mr. Watts will return to his headquarters in a few days.

Stock Bill.

Senate Bill No. 122.

A Bill to be entitled, an Act to direct the election commissioners of Jackson County to hold an election to ascertain the will of the qualified voters of said county as to whether, or not, live stock shall be permitted to run at large in said county.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, of the State of Tennessee, that on Saturday, March first, 1919, an election shall be held by the qualified voters of Jackson County, Tennessee, for the purpose of ascertaining the will of said voters, as to whether, or not, live stock shall be permitted to run at large in said county.

Section 2. Be it further enacted, that the election commissioners of Jackson County, shall give twenty days notice of the holding of such election, and the purpose for which it is to be held, by publishing in a newspaper published in said county, and by notices posted at the regular voting precincts of said county. Said commissioners shall appoint the officers to hold said election in the various civil districts in said county, and shall hold and supervise such election in the same manner as they are required to do in the holding of general elections for county officers, under the general laws of the State. At such election, every person in said county, who is a qualified voter therein under the general election laws of the state, shall be entitled to vote. At such election, all voters in favor of such a stock law for said county, shall write, or, have printed on his ballot, "For a Stock Law." And all opposed to such a stock law, shall write, or, have printed on his ballot, "Against a Stock Law." All ballots used in said election, shall be of the size and color prescribed by the state laws.

Section 3. Be it further enacted, that the officers holding said election, shall make returns thereof, as now provided by law for elections held for county officers. The election commissioners of said county, on the Thursday following said election shall meet at the court house at Gainesboro and canvass the returns of said election, and declare the result thereof. They shall deposit the record of said election with the county court clerk of said county.

Section 4. Be it further enacted, that the expense of holding said election, shall be paid out of the treasury of the county in the same manner as is now provided by law for holding elections for county offices.

Section 5. Be it further enacted, that this Act take effect from and after its passage, the public welfare requiring it.

Passed January 27, 1919.

Andrew L. Todd,
Speaker of the Senate.

Seth M. Walker,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Approved January 28, 1919.

A. H. Roberts,
Governor.

Miss Mamie Morgan, of Cookeville, has accepted a position in the High School here. She takes the place of Miss Leona Haile, resigned.

JACKSON—POLSON.

On last Sunday, at 2 o'clock, at the home of the officiating Justice of the Peace, R. A. Montgomery, occurred a wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends. The contracting parties were John Jackson, son of Andrew Jackson, well known farmer of Route 2, and Miss Reba Polson, daughter of Mrs. D. E. Polson, who resides in Free State. The wedding was a very quite affair, only a few intimate friends being present. The happy couple returned to the home of the bride's, where a delicious dinner was served. The Sentinel joins in congratulations and best wishes for a long, pleasant and prosperous life.

A NEW JEWEL.

No home is complete without the presence of a child. No heart is lonely that is full of father and mother love. To watch the growth of a child and see it develop, day by day, is the greatest pleasure accorded to mortals. This pleasure has just fallen to the lot of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fowler Baugh, who are rejoicing at the arrival, Sunday evening, of a bright baby boy. They are at the home of Mrs. Baugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Draper. The attending physician gives the encouraging report, that with proper care, Ben will speedily recover from his "son-stroke."

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

The second quarterly conference of the Gainesboro Mission was held at the local church last Saturday. The conference was held, following an interesting and instructive talk by the Presiding Elder, T. W. Noland, of Lebanon. Rev. Noland preached three sermons while here, which were very helpful and stimulating to his hearers.

MURRAY—COMPTON.

Of keen social interest on account of the prominence of the couple was the wedding of Miss Daisy Compton and Judge Bancraft Murray of Chattanooga, Tenn. The wedding took place Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Owen on the Grannv White road, Elder A. B. Lipscomb officiating, only the members of the two immediate families witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Howard M. Jones, the bride's niece, was the matron of honor, and Judge N. L. Bachman, of Chattanooga, served as best man.

Judge and Mrs. Murray left after the ceremony for their future home in Chattanooga—Nashville Tennessee.

Judge Murray was a practicing attorney of Gainesboro before going to Chattanooga several years ago, and it is with much pleasure, we tell it to his host of friends in Jackson county.

NEW INSTRUCTOR FOR HIGH SCHOOL.

Prof. Lafayette Broome, of Murfreesboro, arrived in Gainesboro Sunday. He is now one of the faculty of the Gainesboro High School, taking the place formerly filled by Prof. Gaines, resigned. Prof. Broome comes from the Middle Tennessee State Normal, of Murfreesboro, and has all the qualifications necessary for such work. The Board is to be congratulated on securing his service.

Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, of Haydenburg, passed thru Gainesboro, Saturday, en route home from Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., where they had been to visit their son, Harley, who is in a hospital, suffering from wounds he received while fighting in France. They report him getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Anderson, left Thursday for Aberdeen, Miss. where they will spend a few days. Mr. Anderson, is on a deal for some real estate, and if the deal is made, he intends locating there in the near future.
